New Canada Recovery Hiring Program

The proposed Canada Recovery Hiring Program would help hard-hit businesses hire the workers they need to recover and grow as local economies reopen. The program would provide a subsidy of up to 50 per cent of eligible salary or wages. The Hiring Program is designed to interact with the Wage Subsidy. The programs overlap so that, as Wage Subsidy rates gradually decline, eligible employers would still be able to receive the maximum support from the Hiring Program this summer if they hire more workers or increase workers' hours or wages.

There has also been a proposed extension of business support programs that have served as a lifeline to Canadian businesses through the pandemic such as the Wage Subsidy, Rent Subsidy, and Lockdown Support. These programs are set to expire in a month however this proposed extension changes the support dates to September 25th, 2021. Both the Hiring Program and proposed extensions are part of Bill C-30, the Budget Implementation Act, which is currently before Parliament. The Business Credit Availability Program and Highly Affected Credit Availability Programs are being extended to December 31, 2021. Both programs were set to expire on June 30th, 2021. This will provide businesses with the liquidity support they need to invest in recovery.

New Prairie-focused regional development Agency Investment announced in Budget 2021:

Budget 2021 is the Government of Canada's plan to finish the fight against COVID-19 and ensure a robust economic recovery that is inclusive for all Canadians. Budget 2021 is an investment to address the impacts of the COVID-19 recession, put people first, create jobs, grow the middle class, set businesses on track for long-term growth, and ensure that Canada's future will be healthier, more equitable, greener and more prosperous.

Budget 2021 will establish a new agency for the Prairie provinces to play an enhanced role as convenor, pathfinder, partner, investor, and advisor to support economic development in more communities. Growing Western Economic Diversification Canada into two new separate agencies focused on the Prairies and British Columbia is recognition that economic drivers and conditions are different in each of the two regions, and entrepreneurs, innovators, institutions, and communities have unique needs linked to where they are located. Budget 2021 is a plan to fill the gap between Canadians and Canadian businesses through the crisis and to a prosperous recovery and puts Canada on track to meet its commitment to create a million jobs by the end of the year.
